Quære. Whether to this visible Influence many secret ones may not be added?

Q. Why the Civil List, amounting to upwards of 900000 l. per Ann. is at present in Debt?

Q. Whether any Place-man, Civil or Military, voting against the Dictates of the Ministry, is not turned out?

Q. Whether the Reality as well as the Form, of our Constitution does not consist in three separate independent States?

Q. Whether the corrupt influencing either, or both, Houses of Parliament is not subverting those Parts of the Legislature, and destroying our Constitution?

Q. Whether frequent Attempts have not been made to prevent this growing Evil, and to no Purpose, since, notwithstanding these Attempts, there never were so many Place-men in Parliament at one Time as there are now?

Q. Whether the Application of this Influence may not at any Time defeat the Endeavours of those out of Employment, to vindicate the Honour and protect the Trade of the Nation?

Q. Whether, in Case this Influence should be applied to any Question, it would not be imposing on Mankind to debate it?

Q. Whether those who saw it in this Light would not have been Criminal if they had omitted to inform the Nation of their Apprehensions on so important a Point?

Q. Whether they could by any other Method than withdrawing from Debate have apprised their Constituents of their Despair of serving them by farther Attendance?

Q. Whether it is not the Duty of every Elector in Great Britain, in order to preserve his own Rights and those of his Posterity, to require the Concurrence of his respective Representatives effectually to promote a proper Place-Bill in Parliament?

Q. Whether if this be refused now, it is not easy and necessary to stipulate for it at the next Election of a Parliament?

N. B. It appears by the foregoing List, that a very great Number of Persons on one Side of the Question hath visible Dependencies; besides others, who may be under some more secret Influence with regard to Themselves, their Friends, or Relations, which it is improper for us, and in many Cases impossible to point out.

The Publick are likewise desired to take Notice that when the Majority of the House was reduced so low as to SIXTEEN, and the Projector was terrified from proceeding any farther in his Bill at that Time, He had Recourse to a Method, which shews how very loth He was to part with it; for instead of suffering the Order of the Day to be read, for reading the Bill a second Time, He proposed to put it off to a long Day, in order to prevent its being rejected with that Indignation which it justly deserved, and to keep it over our Heads till a more convenient Opportunity. At the same Time, He was not ashamed to extol his Project, and boast that he had a Majority in all the Divisions; with the strongest Intimations both by Himself and his Advocates, that he only comply'd with the present Current of the Times, and would revive it again, when the Ferment was over. It is therefore thought necessary to print this List, by which our Countrymen will be able to distinguish those Gentlemen, on whom the Projector chiefly relies, for putting his Design in Execution; and it is hop'd they will keep it very carefully by them, as the best Guide for their Conduct in the ensuing Elections.
